We extended an invitation to Mr. Scott to visit the Agency for lunch and a briefing. He said he might do this if his Senate committee assignments were in areas that involved the Agency, otherwise he has confidence in us and the job we are doing and saw no necessity for any briefings at this time.

2. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Received a call from [redacted] [redacted] OBGI, who told me that he had a direct phone request from Mr. George Pavlik, Legislative Assistant to Representative Wiley Mayne (R., Iowa), for maps for Mr. Mayne who is leaving this afternoon for Iowa. I told MacGillivray that Representative Mayne is a friend of the Agency and if they could be delivered to him on time, it would be appreciated.

4. (Secret - JMM) Met with Chairman Lucien Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee, House Armed Services Committee, who said:

a. He does not wish any further Agency briefings of himself or or his Subcommittee regarding the intelligence community--this was covered entirely satisfactorily during his Headquarters visit earlier this week. What he does plan is to have the White House and Defense appear before his Subcommittee to discuss this subject during the week of 11 December.

b. Two members of his staff were present when Seymour Hersh, of the New York Times, told him of certain allegations regarding the Agency (see Journal of 30 November) and he is having them write detailed memorandums which he will share with us. (I told Nedzi it was impossible for us to do anything about such allegations unless we were provided with specifics. He said he fully appreciated this and he would try to get more details if possible.)

c. Nedzi sees no reason why we should not go ahead and send a letter from the Director to Representative Aspin saying that the McCoy charges regarding Agency involvement in illicit drug traffic have been thoroughly investigated and no substantiation has been found.

5. (Confidential - JMM) Called John Buckley, Administrative Assistant to Representative Dante B. Fascell (D., Fla.), to say that since the situation in Guatemala might be a little tense right now it occurred to us that Mr. Fascell and his staff might want a quick briefing from us prior to their departure. I said if so we could probably have someone from our Miami office drop by and fill them in on the present situation. Buckley said he appreciated this but Mike Finley, of the Inter-American Affairs Subcommittee of House Foreign Affairs staff, was still in Washington and planned to come down tomorrow. He said Finley was making all the arrangements and suggested we get in touch with him prior to his departure.

Called Mr. Finley re the above and arranged for the Chief or Deputy Chief of WH Division to brief him in his Capitol Hill office at 0930 hours tomorrow morning.
